

2018 LIVE Board of Directors | This ballot is intended for LIVE members to vote for their choices for the Board of Directors. Vote for no more than four choices by selecting a checkbox or writing candidate names in the blank space provided. Each member serves a two-year term.

This slate of nominees was selected by the LIVE Board of Directors and is intended to be fair and representative of the demographics and geography of the membership and the interest of organizational mission. Any member interested in serving on the Board of Directors may contact our office with a letter of intent. LIVE members may also nominate a director from the floor at the Annual Meeting. Any nomination from the floor must be seconded to be added to the ballot for the full vote of the membership.

Additional Notes and Instructions: The number of ballots received is sufficient to meet the quorum requirements of this corporation. Affix the signature of an officer or agent representing the voting member and write the name of the vineyard or winery member, the printed name of the authorized representative, and date.

If submitting by mail or e-mail, complete the ballot and send to: info@livecertified.org | LIVE, PO Box 5185, Salem, OR 97304
E-mailed/mailed ballots must be received by April 10, 2018 to be counted.

Wynne Peterson-Nedry | Re-election

Wynne Peterson-Nedry is a second generation winemaker who got her roots in the footsteps of her father. Wynn earned a Chemistry degree from Bryn Mawr College in 2002, after which she went on to experience several careers in the outside world before admitting to the fact that her heart resided in the Oregon wine country. She graduated with a Masters' degree from UC Davis' Viticulture & Enology program in 2008 and went on to work vintages all over the world, including two in New Zealand, one in California, and a six month scholarship and internship in Burgundy. She officially joined the Chehalem family as assistant winemaker in June of 2009, and in early 2012 became Chehalem's head winemaker.

Bruce Sonnen | Re-election

Bruce Sonnen is an import to Oregon from rural Idaho farm country. He moved to Salem, Oregon with his soon to be wife in 1995, started a family, and currently has a sophomore in college and youngest who is graduating high school this June. In his first seven years in Oregon, he was employed by a large landscape company in the Portland area installing trees, shrubs, lawns, wetlands, etc. His most notable installs were Nike North campus in Beaverton, WSU Vancouver campus, and U of W practice facility. One of his final landscape installs was at Domaine Serene Winery in 2001. January 2002 his agriculture roots transitioned him to vineyard management. He was the fourth person to graduate the Chemeketa Community College Viticulture degree program and is currently Vineyard Manager at VanDuzer Vineyards and Winery in Dallas, OR.

James Whitelatch | Re-election

James Whitelatch is a fourth generation owner of RC Farms, a 200 acre farm and vineyard, and Claar Wine Group, an estate winery producing multiple brands, both in Washington State. He holds an Associate Degree from Columbia Basin College. For the past four years he has managed all aspects of the farm, from field work to harvest, and general operations and facility management for the winery. James as Owner and Operations Manager was instrumental in receiving LIVE certification for both CWG and RC Farms. He continues his sustainability work at both locations, as well as providing outreach and expertise for other area producers considering sustainability strategies. He resides in Pasco Washington.
